COUNTY SPECIFIC TERMS:

The County of Oneida makes no promises or statements of fact about any parcel which is being offered for sale. No employee or agent of the County of Oneida has any authority to make any promises or representations of any nature concerning any of these It is the responsibility of each bidder to investigate any and all aspects of the status of each parcel which I/we may desire to purchase PRIOR TO BIDDING ON THE PARCEL.

Prior to bidding, I/we are strongly encouraged to go to the property(ies) of interest and examine them in person from the sidewalk or I/we are, however, prohibited from trespassing on the property(ies) or entering into the building(s), if applicable. This restriction also applies to any party offering to purchase the property until the quit claim deed transferring ownership from the County to the new owner is recorded in the County Clerk's Office.

In most cases, a picture of the property is available for viewing. A map and tax information are available for each parcel. Tax maps are only representations and may depict a proposed development or road. The County does not guarantee that the development or road actually exists, nor does it guarantee the eventual creation of any development or road. Tax maps do not represent exact dimensions. You are also encouraged to obtain the zoning & code regulations from the municipality where the property is located

No representation is made as to the condition or validity of title to the parcels to be sold. Abstracts of title and land surveys will not be furnished.

The terms bid, offer to purchase, and bid offer shall have the same meaning.

Any bills not yet received by this office will be the responsibility of the new This includes all fees and taxes from other municipalities. City, town, school, water and sewer tax lien/fee information must be obtained from the collector for the municipality in which the property is located. Liens and mortgages on the properties are on file at the County Clerk's Office.

The buyer may be responsible for certain municipal liens, fees, or taxes. This includes amount due prior to filing the deed as well as after filing. Under intermunicipal agreement, properties located in the City of Rome and City of Utica are free and clear of all delinquent city, and delinquent county tax liens. However, the buyer will be responsible for the pro-rata portion of the current County, Town, City and School taxes if the Board of Legislators accepts the bid. The Commissioner of Finance and County of Oneida reserve the right to withdraw from the auction any of the properties listed on the schedule of real property at any The Commissioner of Finance and County of Oneida reserve the right to combine any properties and sell them together or as one. The Commissioner of Finance or designated deputy has sole discretion to make decisions concerning the conduct of the auction, prior to and during the auction, including, but not limited to the method of sale for each parcel or group of parcels. The Commissioner of Finance or his designated deputy may reject any bid at any time for any reason.

At the time of the auction, all prospective purchaser(s) must sign a memorandum of agreement wherein they affirm that he or she is not acting on behalf of the former owner(s). If this provision is violated, they will be liable for any excess of taxes, penalties, interest, and administrative costs over the amount of said auction Said amounts will be subject to relevy. I/we hereby certify that there are no delinquent county taxes due and owing beyond the current year on other properties located in Oneida County owned by me and/or any corporation, partnership, etc., as represented hereunder. In the event that the Commissioner of Finance finds such delinquent county taxes outstanding as of the date of auction, and as described above, said Commissioner is directed by the Board of Legislators to reject such bid(s) and may do so at any time. I/we hereby acknowledge that with any violation of this provision, any and all deposits will be forfeited to the County of Oneida, and the Commissioner of Finance may cause a deed to be filed transferring title to the Oneida County Board of Legislators.

Oneida County reserves the right to refuse any bid.

If Oneida County accepts the bid, you are prohibited from selling the property to the former owner(s) for a period of five (5) years. If the property is occupied, and the buyer of the property wants the property vacated, the buyer will be responsible for the eviction of the occupants.

It is the responsibility of each prospective purchaser to investigate any and all aspects of the status of each parcel which he or she may desire to purchase. The County makes no representation as to the condition of the property(ies) concerning environmental problems. Each bidder assumes all responsibility for having previously checked the condition of the property(ies) and the County assumes no responsibility for any environmentally hazardous conditions on the property(ies).
